

e: info@connectingmemories.org
f: <https://www.facebook.com/connectingmemories>
w: <http://www.connectingmemories.org/>

CONNECTING MEMORIES

Keynote Lecture:

‘Forgetting and Remembering: Black Slavery and the History of Scotland’

Professor Emeritus Sir Tom Devine

University of Edinburgh

Friday, 10th May 2019 at 5pm

Project Room (1.06)

50 George Square, Edinburgh

Professor Sir Tom Devine’s research has covered innumerable aspects of the history of Scotland since c.1600 and its global connections and impact.

Connecting Memories is a collaborative interdisciplinary research initiative opening up a space for previously unconnected scholars working on memory to interact, to share their perspectives and reflections on what memory means in the context of their research.

For more information and for updates, please visit our website: <http://www.connectingmemories.org/>
You can also follow us on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/connectingmemories>
Feel free to get in touch by email: info@connectingmemories.org